

Meet the TEACHER

Cookie Monster

Hi! I am Cookie Monster and I am excited to be your child's teacher this year!

Chocolate chip cookies are my favorite kind of cookie; oatmeal cookies are my second favorite. Before I ate my first cookie, I believe my name was Sid. Despite my voracious appetite for cookies, I also enjoy fruits and eggplant. I am allergic to peanut butter and hazelnut cookies.

I have a mother, a younger sister, and an identical cousin (who ironically does not like cookies). My father appeared in a Monsterpiece Theater sketch promoting energy conservation, water conservation and environmentalism.
