

Pearland Junior High South

Title 1 Parent Involvement Policy

Pearland Junior High South is dedicated to the success of our students. The faculty and staff of PJHS believe that all parents are partners with teachers and other staff in the education of their children. PJHS believes that parent involvement is essential to the success of all children. Representatives of the faculty, parents, and community members of Pearland Junior High South agreed upon the following parental involvement supplemental that is supported by our Campus Improvement Plan (CIP).

At Pearland Junior High South, faculty and staff will:

- Foster a welcoming and responsive environment for all parents
- Respect parents as partners in the education of children
- Provide information for parents that is clear, usable, and linked to children's success in school
- Set high expectations for excellence and ask parents to help set academic goals and strengths for their children
- Promote parent involvement in site-based leadership and decision making
- Establish a trust through honest communication and weekly newsletter with up-to-date information on the curriculum plans, expectations for homework, and how parents can help
- Conduct Learning Night (i.e. Math, STAAR Information) to provide specific information to parents on how to assist students with homework, and respect the different cultures represented in our student population (virtual)

At Pearland Junior High South, parents/guardians will:

- Be involved in their children's learning and education by attending Open House, Parent/Teacher conferences, Family Nights, which due to Covid-19 will be held virtually when possible
- Respect the teachers and support the PJHS Staff as partners in the education of their children
- Utilize two-way lines of communication between parents and the PJHS Staff on the instruction, achievement, and conduct of their children (e.g. Conferences, Skyward messages, etc.)
- Take the initiative to seek the best educational opportunities for their children
- Participate in site-based leadership and decision making
- Actively volunteer at Pearland Junior High South
