Dear Newest Oiler,

Welcome to the Oiler Family! I know walking into a new place can be exciting and uneasy all at the same time. Know that you are in a great place that loves each and everyone of our Oilers, new and old. As you begin to find your niche, know that the staff and students in this family are here to help you. If you have a specific interest, but do not know where to start...ask. If you do not know where something is...ask. We are here to support you.

We are here to support you not only with becoming acclimated to Pearland High School, but also to support and prepare you for your passion beyond high school. At Pearland High School, we take pride in developing young adults passions while celebrating the deep traditions of the Oiler Family. We take pride in not only celebrating our traditions, but also creating traditions for the Oilers to come.

Make sure to get involved in the many things happening throughout the year. Join the student section at Friday Night Lights in The Rig, Pressure Pit, or the ball fields. Come watch our band, choir, thespians or Prancers perform in our Performing Arts Center. Or better yet, join one of these wonderful groups where your family and friends can come and watch you. If these organizations do not peak you interest join one of our many clubs, JROTC or Academic Decathlon team. We have something for everyone here at Pearland High School.

Over the coming days and years, I encourage you to be involved. Being involved is the best way to build a support system for you. Know that your support system goes beyond just an organization. You will have an assistant principal and counselor who will support you on your journey and challenges that may arise along with the countless teachers, directors, or coaches you will work with as well as me. Know that we are all here to support YOU!

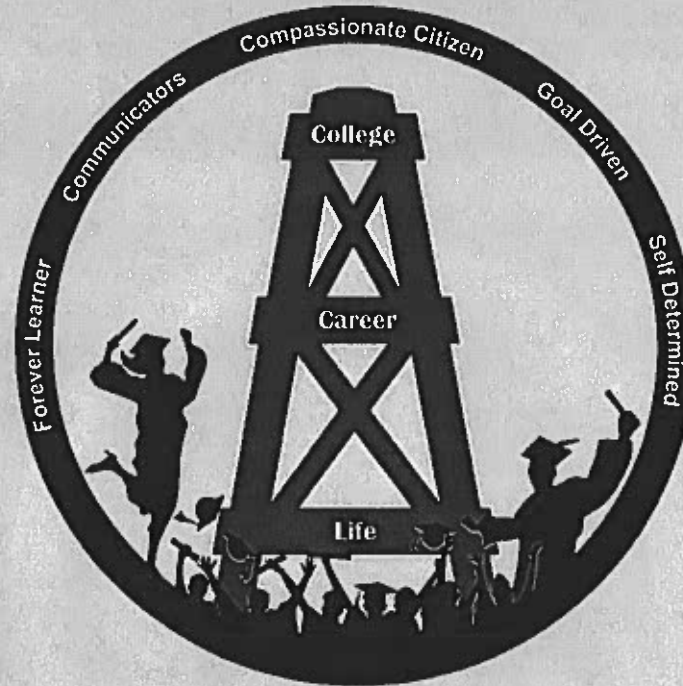

I hope your first few days as an Oiler are great. As you begin to settle in remember to join in the traditions of the Oiler Family! Challenge yourself in and outside of the classroom and ask for help when needed. I am excited to have you as an Oiler Family member and can't wait to see all of the great things you will accomplish here.

Go Oilers and always remember...PRIDE HONOR SUCCESS!
