

Robert Turner College and Career High School Honor Code

Students attending Robert Turner College and Career High School are expected to conduct themselves honorably in pursuit of their education. We believe students are responsible for maintaining and supporting the academic integrity of the school by completing all assigned work, activities, and tests in an honorable process without engaging in cheating, fraud, plagiarism, or prohibitive electronic assistance. The Honor Code expressly forbids the following academic violations:

Cheating

Examples of cheating include, but are not limited to:

- Copying another person's work.
- Allowing another person to copy your work.
- Using unauthorized notes, aids, or written material in any form during a test.
- Unauthorized use of technological devices (cell phones, cameras, ipods, games, etc) while taking an assessment. During assessment, visible electronic devices are deemed as cheating. No exceptions.
- Talking; copying from another person's paper; giving or receiving information by signs, gestures, or deception during any type of assessment.

Plagiarism

Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- Presenting someone else's work as your own, including the copying of language, structure, programming, computer code, ideas, and/or thoughts of another without proper citation or acknowledgement.
- Copying word for word, without using quotation marks or giving credit to the source of the material.
- Failing to use proper documentation and bibliography.
- Having someone else do assignments which are then submitted as one's own work.

Falsification/Lying

Examples of falsification/lying include, but are not limited to:

- Making an untrue statement verbally or in writing with the intent to deceive.
- Creating false or misleading impressions.
- Forgery of official signatures.

Consequences:

We believe the measure of success of our school community is based on the success of our students, so the consequences below shall serve as a deterrent to a violation of the RTCCHS Honor Code. As a result of clear and compelling evidence of student's cheating, the following consequences will be enforced and violations of the RTCCHS Honor Code will accumulate throughout a student's high school career.

First Violation of Honor Code

1. A student shall receive a "0" for the school work, and is subject to a "U" in conduct, and disciplinary action.
2. Retakes will not be allowed for assignments associated with cheating.
3. A student is not eligible for final exam exemption in course where cheating took place.

Second Violation of Honor Code

1. A student shall receive a "0" for the school work, and is subject to a "U" in conduct, and disciplinary action.
2. Retakes will not be allowed for assignments associated with cheating.
3. Students who are enrolled in advanced academic courses (Pre-AP/AP) will lose weighted GPA for course.
4. A student is not eligible for final exam exemption in any course.
5. A documented finding of academic dishonesty shall be reported on the student's college application.
6. Students in violation of the Honor Code may be removed from the National Honor Society, National Junior Honor Society, and any other Honor Society that is an organized school program.
